HARRIS HOUSE

Located in the quaint city of Chardon, stands the newest of our developments, Harris House. It is located in the Woods of Burlington where you will find many beautiful walking trails. Harris House is a one story building with 50 one bedroom units.

Our History

The Geauga Metropolitan Housing Authority (GMHA) was created in 1969 by what was then known as the State of Ohio Board of Housing. In 1981 the agency received its first grant funding for 106 housing units from the U.S. Department of HUD. Over the years, GMHA has expanded to a total of 243 public housing units within Geauga County where it maintains 100% occupancy. Additionally, GMHA maintains an extensive waiting list of applicants.

Our office hours are 8 a.m. to noon and 1 p.m. to 4:30 p.m. Monday thru Thursday and 8 a.m. to noon on Fridays.

Chardon History Brief

Chardon, the county seat of Geauga County was incorporated in 1812.

On July 24-25, 1868 a fire destroyed the town's square. It was rebuilt and many of the buildings constructed after the fire still stand today.

Chardon is widely recognized as the center of Ohio's maple syrup industry as well as being noted for the Maple Festival and being known as the "snowiest city in Ohio."

The City of Chardon prides itself on offering a serene and peaceful atmosphere with the conveniences of modern amenities, making it a desirable community for both residents and visitors.
