Newbury History Brief

The Punderson Manor House was originally intended to be a summer home for the Karl Long family of Detroit. He was head of a Detroit trucking firm and in the 1920's started construction of a 43-room mansion with 15 bathrooms and 4 fireplaces. After spending $250,000, he had financial difficulties and the mansion was left unfinished. The property reverted to the former owner until it was sold to the state of Ohio in the 1950's. The state finished the building and the Manor House Lodge and State Park grounds were opened.

Playground and pavilion for outdoor activities.
